

Frequently Asked Questions

For Schuyler

Has the new visibility of trans people changed things?

What has your experience been with bathrooms and locker rooms?

What can companies do to be sensitive to LGBTQ inclusion issues (policies, practices, communications)?

What can companies do differently to provide better environments for trans individuals?

Do corporations need to do more to educate their staff on trans topics and/or issues?

What can we all do to make inclusion a reality and not a courtroom battle?

What should companies do to promote more Allies?

What can employees do if they encounter adverse conditions for trans individuals?

What can parents do if they have a kid who is struggling?

Where did you and your parents find support and resources?

How can your story help promote inclusion and tolerance more broadly?

As you look to your future, what do you think will be our reality in five, ten, twenty years?

For Schuyler's Parents (or Schuyler about parenting if parent not present)

How did you (your parents) know that your kid was trans?

How do you (your parents) know it is not just a phase?

What do you (your parents) think when Schuyler told you he was trans?

What did you (your parents) do when Schuyler asked about getting top surgery?

What do you (your parents) worry about - now that Schuyler is public about being trans?

How did you (your parents) deal with changing pro-nouns, pictures, memories?

What would you (your parents) do differently?

How do I accept something I don't even understand?

How can I as a parent get educated?

Where can I find support for my child? For me?

What can we as parents do to make life for trans kids better?